Clinically Proven Technology That Works

The Beauty Angel is NOT a tanning booth (although it looks like one) and emits no UV Light. It is a Full Body Collagen Stimulator that uses special red lights tuned at 633 nanometers, which are clinically proven to stimulate the fibroblasts (skin cells) to produce collagen, strengthen elastin, and noticeably improve the cellular matrix of your skin.

Helps Minimize Lines, Wrinkles, & Pigmentation Issues

Softer, healthier skin awaits you after a regular regimen of Beauty Angel treatments. As we age, the production of our skin's collagen and elastin slows down, along with our ability to heal from environmental damage. Beauty Angel helps 'turn back' our body's clock to help our skin get back its youthful luster. All it takes is about three 12 minute sessions per week over the course of the regimen!

Tightens, Tones, & Reduces Appearance of Cellulite

There is even more to the Beauty Angel than just the Red Light therapy. In fact, the 'secret ingredient' lies with the patented professional-grade Vibration Platform that provides a multitude of benefits to you. This includes the strengthening of your core, toning of the muscles (especially the thigh/gluts area), increasing metabolism, and boosting circulation. The increase in circulation dramatically boosts the effectiveness of the Red Light Therapy so it's actually a double benefit for you!

The Vibration Therapy Platform Additional Benefits

Used initially by Russian Cosmonauts to help prevent the loss of muscle and bone density in space, whole body vibration (WBS) is also utilized in physical therapy and the fitness industries.
